II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

Plaintiff is suing for 100 million dollars and seeking punitive damages

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Plaintiff is suing former mayor of Birmingham Michigan, and a current city commissioner of Birmingham Stuart Lee Sherman and also the City he is employed by and was employed by when he committed fraud using his city titles to do so.

Stuart Lee Sherman while employed by Birmingham Michigan, used his title as a government employee to convince the plaintiff to let him handle his financial obligations as he was doing for the city of Birmingham Michigan. The plaintiff was working with the commissioner on real estate properties, one of deals was to find land to build a 100 million dollar technology academy for poor black and puerto rican children of Pontiac Michigan.

The plaintiff was in a horrible accident and this is why the former mayor and now city commissioner was handling his financial obligations. The defendant Sherman told plaintiff as the city's Mayor he could ensure that plaintiff finances would be secured, because he handle these types of obligations everyday as a employee of Birmingham Michigan. The defendant used his title with the city of Birmingham to commit fraud. Plaintiff lost thousands of dollars from this fraud by the defendant Sherman. Sherman while using his government position created several fraudulent documents and had the plaintiff sign some, plaintiff didn't know what he was signing due to vision impairment from a automobile accident, defendant was fully aware that plaintiff was disabled by way of vision impairment, when the fraud was committed.

The city of Birmingham is responsible because they knew of prior fraud committed by the former mayor, while he was employed with the city, and even with this information, the city took no steps to remove the defendant Sherman from his employment with the city. The city was aware that the former mayor had his legal license suspended for committing fraud of a very similar type he is being accused of in this lawsuit. If the city took steps to remove the former at that time, he would not have been able to use his government position to commit fraud in this case, so the city bares responsibility for their inaction to remove a clear threat to the public on there payroll or in his capacity as their employee, so the city should have to pay for the fraud.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Suing for 100 million dollars and seeking punitive damages and any all other damages the plaintiff is entitled to under 1983 section 42
